Jacksonville Jaguars Visit The Jericho School!

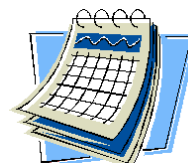

Players from the Jacksonville Jaguars came out to visit The Jericho School for Children with Autism on Tuesday, September 11, 2018. Thank you to DJ Chark Jr., Niles Paul and Allen Lazard for coming out to see our students! Our students had a great time working on social skills with you guys! I think you all have some new fans!

DJ Chark Jr. #17 is a Wide Receiver from LSU and was the second round pick in the 2018 NFL Draft for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Niles Paul #81 is a talented Tight End who came to us this season from the Washington Redskins. Allan Lazard #19 is a Wide Receiver and the career leader for receptions and receiving yards at Iowa State University. Look out for all of these players as you cheer on the Jacksonville Jaguars!

We would also like to thank Action News Chanel 47 for being there to video the event and having a special segment for The Jericho School on the evening news. Thank you to J.W. Lee Photography who was able to come out and capture this great moment and for all the great photographs he was able to get for us. We had an extremely fun day!

The Jericho School Spaghetti Dinner and Student Art Show

The Jericho School held a Spaghetti Dinner and Student Art Show on September 13, 2018. Each of the students created pieces of art using a variety of mediums including paint, crayons, shaving cream, feathers, beads, and string. While enjoying a terrific dinner, guests were treated to a fantastic display of art. While all of the art was priceless, bidding on the pieces was encouraged. We would like to thank our students for their beautiful art, the Jericho staff that made this event possible, and a very special thank you to all of you who bid on our student's artwork! Look for this event again next fall!
